New Email Alert Service on CEO Europe's TopExecutiveSearchEngine

A new feature within the TopExecutiveSearchEngine of the international top executive recruitment company CEO Europe helps employers to continuously screen the market for suitable candidates – effortless, thereby saving time.

CEO Europe offers its clients to set up a simple search alert at their TopExecutiveSearchEngine. In doing this, the client passes the most important keywords for his search to CEO Europe once and then receives the best suited candidate profiles delivered to his desk automatically – every week until he cancels the alert. Consequently he will always receive the latest profiles without the need to revisit CEO Europe's website and to re-enter his search criteria.

Setting up the free alert only takes a few seconds. It is sufficient to fill in Name, Email and Search criteria.

Email Alert Request

You can subscribe to our new weekly candidates selection email alert based on your keywords search criteria. Please enter your name, first name and email address below then press the « Subscribe » button.
